

Social Contract

Governor's Commission on Community and Volunteer Service Retreat

Buena Vista Conference Center | Thursday, November 15th | 9 am - 2 pm

Pework

Video - Simon Sinek Start with Why	Article - Jim Collins Hedgehog Concept in Social Sectors
---	---

Objectives:

What is our Why?	Who are we?	What will we prioritize?
Define a clear vision, contextualized in a broader DE Landscape.	Develop relationships that will fuel our long term work together.	Identify the highest priority levers that must be pulled to maximize our impact.

9:00 - 9:30 am Opening, Agenda Review, and Introductions

- Introduction - Each guest shares a moment when volunteering your services affected your life and shaped who you are

9:30 - 11:30 am Understanding “Our Why” within Delaware’s Social Landscape

- Why is the work of the S.O.V. important at this place and time in Delaware?
- How do we position ourselves in today’s landscape to achieve the best results?
- What are the needs of our partners? What are the needs of our volunteers?
How does this help define our why?

11:30 - 12:00 pm What does this mean for our dream state?

12:00 - 12:30 pm Break for Lunch

12:30 - 2:00 pm Our Priorities

- What is our “headline” one year from now ?
- What must be true to build optimal foundation for “ideal state”?
- What levers must we pull to achieve our goals for 2018/2019?

Our next executive session will be design thinking focusing on:

- What strategies do we want to employ to achieve our why?
- What levers do we have to pull to achieve our why?
- What work do we need to prioritize to achieve our why?